Clark County Health Department's Statement on Supreme Court Ruling

In light of the Wisconsin Supreme Court ruling regarding the Safer at Home order, the Clark County Health Department is consulting with state and local authorities about next steps. In an effort to limit the spread of COVID-19, we are respectfully requesting that Clark County residents voluntarily continue to follow safe social distancing practices.

The health and safety of all community members remains our highest priority.

Additional details will be released soon. Thank you for your continued patience and cooperation.
